

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:
October 26, 2021

CONTACT:
Kevin Toon
(503) 588-6550

League of Oregon Cities Names Board of Directors for 2022

SALEM, Ore. – The League of Oregon Cities (LOC) membership selected its 2022 board of directors October 22 during its 96th Annual Business Meeting, which was held virtually due to the Coronavirus pandemic.

The following are the city officials that were named to the LOC’s governing board for the calendar year 2022. Officials new to the board or an officer position appear in bold text.

President:	Tanea Browning, Councilor, Central Point
Vice President:	Steve Callaway, Mayor, Hillsboro
Treasurer:	Dave Drotzmann, Mayor, Hermiston
Past President:	Keith Mays, Mayor, Sherwood

Directors:	Catherine Biscoe, Councilor, Philomath
	Arlene Burns, Mayor, Mosier
	Candy Canga Picar, Councilor, Metolius
	Jessica Engelke, Mayor, North Bend
	Roland Herrera, Councilor, Keizer
	Beach Pace, Councilor, Hillsboro
	Carmen Rubio, Commissioner, Portland
	Dean Sawyer, Mayor, Newport
	Byron Smith, City Manager, Hermiston
	Kevin Stine, Councilor, Medford
	John Walsh, City Administrator, St. Helens
	Kenna West, City Manager, Willamina

About the League of Oregon Cities

Founded in 1925, the League of Oregon Cities is a voluntary association representing Oregon’s 241 incorporated cities. The League helps city governments serve their citizens by providing advocacy services, policy consultation, intergovernmental relations assistance, networking and training, technical assistance and publications.

###