

University Training in Planning and Public Policy

Empowering Today's and Tomorrow's Changemakers

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

School of Planning, Public Policy and Management

Planning, Public Policy and Management Graduate Programs

- PhD in Planning and Public Affairs
- Master of Community and Regional Planning \(CRP\)
- Master of Public Administration \(MPA\)
- Master of Nonprofit Management \(MNM\)
- Graduate Certificate in Nonprofit Management

Planning, Public Policy and Management Undergraduate Programs

- Major in PPPM \(BA or BS\)
- Minor in PPPM
- Minor in Nonprofit Administration

Why choose PPPM?

Students choose PPPM because our programs are:

- Hands-On Learning: Our students and faculty connect research to practice by developing solutions with nonprofit and government clients to address complex problems across the state.
- Collaborative: Our activities inside and beyond the classroom support our diverse community of students so that all can thrive together. You'll leave PPPM with a robust network of peers and professionals to help prepare you for career success.
- Interdisciplinary: Our broad range of concentrations and opportunities for professional development let you tailor our programs to your interests and career goals.

Photo Credit: Liz Gronert

Institute for Policy Research & Engagement

Institute for Policy Research & Engagement

DUAL MISSION

Serving Oregon communities

Educating the next generation of planners & policymakers

The Applied Course Experience

Changemaking in Practice

Cottage Grove, Oregon

Are you a PPPM alum, employer, or friend of the program?

Help shape future leaders by hosting a PPPM intern.

Our students are eager to learn and make valuable contributions.
Hosting an intern is a great way to mentor future professionals while gaining fresh ideas and support for your organization.

Scan the QR Code to learn more!

Want to know more?

Amanda Ferguson

Public Policy and Planning Lead

Institute for Policy Research and Engagement

afergus4@uoregon.edu

<https://pppm.uoregon.edu>